Make sure to install household smoke

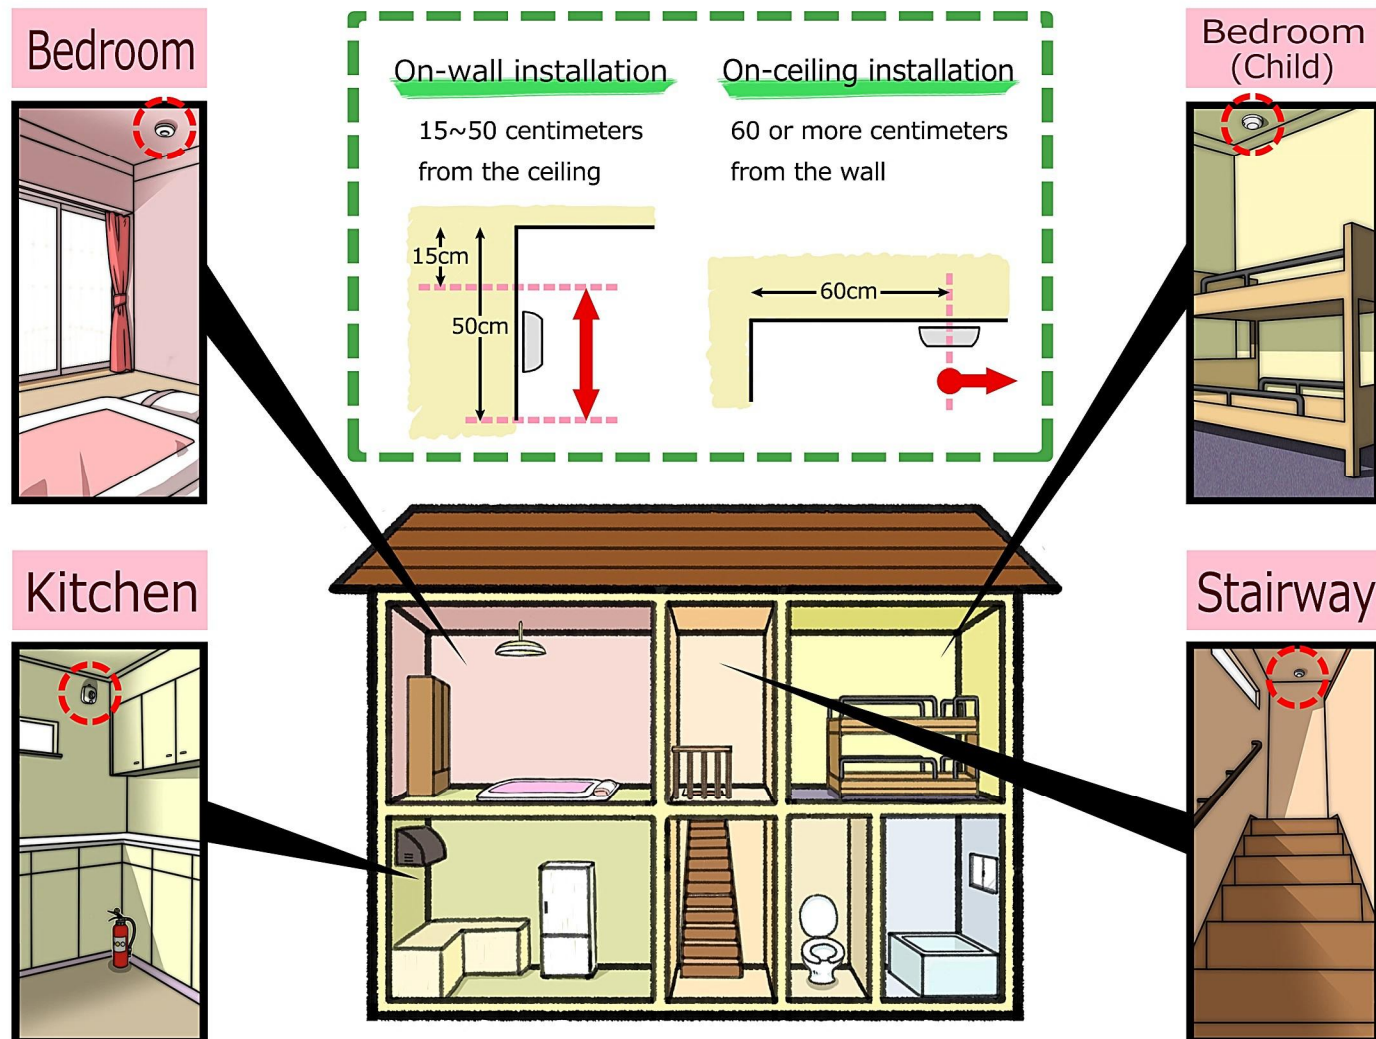

What's a household smoke detector?

☆ A household smoke detector is an emergency device that automatically detects smoke (or heat) from household fires. It assists in the quick evacuation of family members by generating an acoustic warning signal or spoken voice alert in the event of a fire.

Do you have household smoke detectors installed in your home?

☆ Household smoke detectors should be installed in bedrooms, kitchens, and stairways.

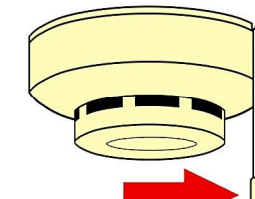

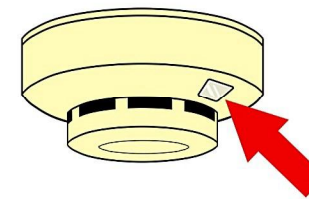

detectors in your home

How do I check on the status of my devices?

- ☆ Periodically check if your household smoke detectors work properly.
 - The status of each household smoke detector can be checked by pushing the button or pulling the string attached to the device.

Beep Beep Beep

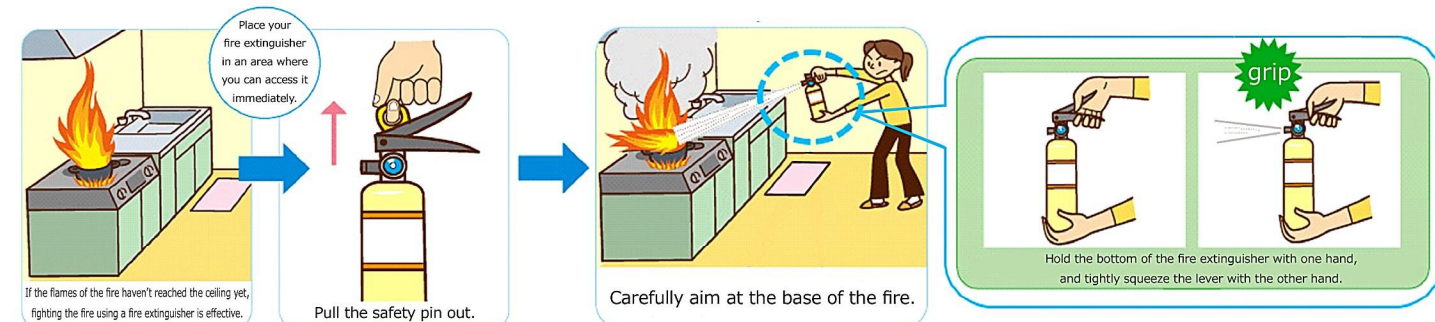

※ The sound of the alarm or spoken voice alert varies based on the type of device.

- If there are no problems, the device will emit a sound.
- If the device doesn't emit sound or broadcast a spoken voice alert, it may be damaged or broken.
- ☆ It is recommended to replace each device approximately once every ten years.
 - The lifespan of a household smoke detector is about ten years long. Check when each device was installed.
 - Depending on usage and other circumstances, it may be necessary to change the battery earlier than normal.

Make sure to have a fire extinguisher available in the event of an emergency!

☆ How to use a fire extinguisher

☆ If there's a fire...

- Try to extinguish it using a fire extinguisher!
 - ⇒ But if you can't extinguish it, run away immediately!
- Remain calm and evacuate!
 - ⇒ If you evacuate, don't go back into your home!
- In a loud voice, warn everyone in the surrounding area that there's a fire!
 - ⇒ Help the elderly and children, and evacuate together with them!
- Call 119, and have them send over a fire truck!
 - ⇒ Call 1 1 9

☆ Fire extinguishers are sold at disaster prevention supply stores and home centers.
